

DIRECTIONS:

Visit the following websites, completing the self-assessments and answering the questions that follow. As you complete these assessments, consider how you could use this in any of your CTE classes.

Personality Test #1: <http://www.humanmetrics.com/cgi-win/jtypes2.asp>

Brief description: The Jung Typology Test is based on Carl Jung’s and Isabell Briggs Myer’s personality type theory.

Q1: What is your 4 letter type formula? _____

Q2: What careers and occupations are most suitable for your personality type?

Q3: What did you uncover about your communication and learning styles?

Q4: Who are some famous personalities that share your personality characteristics?

Personality Test #2: www.16personalities.com

Brief Description:

Q5: What is the name of your personality type? _____

Q6: Please complete the following chart according to the result of this survey:

Percent Scored		Percent Scored
	Introverted		Extroverted
	Intuitive		Observant
	Thinking		Feeling
	Judging		Prospecting
	Assertive		Turbulent

Q7: According to this quiz, what are your strengths and weaknesses?

Q8: Do the workplace habits reflected on this survey accurately portray your workplace habits? Please describe.

Personality Test #3: <https://careertech.org/student-interest-survey>

Brief description: Career Cluster Interest Inventory

Q9: What were your top three career clusters of interest?

REFLECTION

What have you learned about yourself through completing these assessments?

Why is it important for a teacher to know about themselves?

Why is it important for a teacher to know about his/her students?
